

Hao Hao Chi – Join the team!

About Us

Established for more than 2 years, we are a fun and friendly Street Food company which sells handmade regional Chinese Food. Dumplings and Jiamos – hot filled bread pockets, are our specialty. We started off running a market stall selling our hot food around London, regularly at farmer's market in Oval and Alexandra Palace and then at many of the Summer and Christmas fairs and festivals. And now we've just opened a permanent kiosk in Peckham Levels – one of the coolest new hotspots in town. So, now that we are expanding, we're looking for people to join the team!

Duties

- Preparing of food – making dumplings, chopping of vegetables and meat, making and rolling dough, preparing of sauces
- Cooking of food – stir-frying, cooking on the various equipment such as the fryer and the griddle
- Cleaning – helping to wash up and clean the kitchen
- Selling – being able to communicate the menu and use the till
- Working on the market stall – setting up, selling and/or cooking (optional)
- Adhering to food and hygiene requirements

Person requirement

- Passionate about food and cooking
- Proactive – uses initiative to solve problems
- Reliable and trustworthy – on time and can work alone
- Team-player - someone who is able to muck in and get the job done
- Good level of English Language
- Flexible – main location will be at Peckham Levels but can work at different sites if required (optional)

Skills and experience

- Cooking skills – chopping, multi-tasking, frying, making and rolling dough. Ability to pinch dumplings would be an advantage.
- Customer service – dealing with customers, able to describe and sell the menu

Pay and Benefits

£ 8 per hour. Full training will be given to our staff. You will learn how to prepare and cook all the items on our menu, how to sell to customers and how a street food business operates. And for those star employees, there will be future opportunities for advancement with the company.
